When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.
If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.
A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

London, 15th—The latest election returns are :—

Liberals.....	293
Conservatives....	287

Catania, 15th—The eruption of Etna is increasing and a great catastrophe is feared. Eighteen craters are vomiting lava in enormous quantities. Some of the extinct craters are again in activity. On the north and south-west side of the mountain several streams of lava are rushing down.
The road to Randazzo is blocked with lava, and the town of Malvagna is in great danger. All the plantations above Randazzo have been destroyed by the lava, which has also reached a great part of the cultivated region of Etna, causing enormous damage.
The lava has almost reached Belpasso, Nicoiosi, and Randazzo, where a great panic prevails. The authorities of other threatened villages are taking measures for their evacuation by the inhabitants if the eruption continues.
Professor Palmeri has arrived from Naples to study the phenomenon. Other scientific notables have also arrived.
Washington, 15th.—The strike of the Falls (Texas) miners is assuming alarming proportions. The miners are destroying the railway lines and bridges with dynamite, and are murdering travellers. An order has been issued to the Federal troops to shoot on the spot the dynamiters who are caught in the act.
Paris, 15th—Pasteur is very ill, and great fears are entertained for his life.
Cholera cases continue in the city and suburbs : and it is believed that there are many more cases than those made public, and that the truth is concealed in order not to alarm the population. Stringent measures have been adopted for the isolation of the sick.
New York, 15th.—The strike at the Carnegie foundry has again become serious. The workmen who had submitted are again resisting the police, and a fresh conflict is feared.
Berlin, 15th. — The dissensions amongst the Socialists continue. The Independent Radicals, who repudiate the theories of Babel and Liebnecht, are increasing in numbers daily. Babel's book on German Democratic Socialism is anxiously looked for. It will be published in a few days.
Rome, 15th—The appearance of cholera at Alexandria has caused some alarm in Sicily and all the South of Italy. Rigorous quarantine has been imposed on vessels from Egypt, Turkey and the Black Sea.
The papers call for precautions on the French frontier.
Berne, 15th—The President of the Confederation, on opening the Federal Rifle Competition at Glacis, delivered a speech that has caused a great impression and must attract the attention of the European press.
He declares that Switzerland is determined to defend its neutrality at any point where it is attacked; it is necessary to prepare for this, and the Federal Government would neglect its duty if it did not attend to the defence of the frontiers against nations that, sooner or later, are bound to come into collision. He added that the forts erected on St. Gothard, and those ordered to be built in the Rnone valley have been designed with this view; but the fortifications must be supplemented with good arms and the military instruction of the citizens.
The President's speech has caused a good impression here, but it is foreseen that his reference to a probable war between France and Italy will give rise to much comment.

(To the "Prensa".)

London, 14th —The elections now show a tie, with 284 seats for both parties. The Radicals won twelve seats on Wednesday. It is now calculated that Gladstone will have a majority of 40 to 50 in the new House of Commons.
The Times correspondent in St. Petersburgh says that 102 persons die daily of cholera in Astrakan.
Washington, 14th.—The Representatives have thrown out the Free Silver Coinage Bill.
The miners at the Falls (?) have filled the mine with dynamite and threaten to blow it up if new hands are taken on. They have torn up the railways and destroyed some bridges, to prevent troops being sent to the rescue.
New York, 14th.—Bar silver in London 39⅛.
Paris, 14th.—The Chambers have been prorogued. Colonel Doads is the new commander in chief in Dahomey.
The Municipality has voted 1¼ million francs to erect a temporary wooden hospital at Montmartre.
Lisbon, 14th.—Quarantine has been imposed on vessels from Russian ports at which cholera prevails.
Rome, 14th. — The eruption from Mount Etna is increasing rapidly. Torrents of lava are pouring down the sides of the mountain, carrying everything before them. All the craters are in eruption.
Madrid, 14th.—The food taxes have caused rioting in all parts. At Seville the mob set fire to the Customs offices and stoned the clerks.
The doctors sent to Paris to study the cholera there report that it is Asiatic. Government has ordered precautions all along the Pyrenees.
Calcutta, 14th.—At a public meeting it has been decided to send a petition to the House of Commons, in case the Monetary Conference at Washington should refuse to recommend the gold standard for India.

THE NEW PARLIAMENT.

GLADSTONE'S 4TH PREMIERSHIP.

The results to hand shew that beyond all doubt Mr. Gladstone will come into office with a majority of 40 or 50 in the House of Commons. This will be the 30th administration since the Union, and the 4th in which Mr. Gladstone will be prime-minister, a distinction that has not fallen to any other statesman. There have been up to the present 29 administrations and 19 premiers, and their terms of office have been as follows:—

	Months	Administrations
Lord Liverpool....	178	1
Gladstone.....	130	3
Palmerston.....	113	2
Disraeli.....	83	2
Melbourne.....	82	2
Salisbury	78	2
Russell.....	76	2
Peel.....	62	2
Derby.....	46	3
10 others.....	250	10
Total.....	1,098	29

It will be observed that no Prime Minister held power for such a length of time as Lord Liverpool, nearly 15 years, without interruption. Next to him comes Mr. Gladstone, who will require 4 years to equal Lord Liverpool's term.
A remarkable feature in the new Parliament is that it is the first elected with a declared majority in favor of Home Rule for Ireland, although as yet the public are ignorant of the precise outlines of the Bill which Mr. Gladstone will lay before Parliament. From his repeated declarations, however, we know that it will differ in some important points from the Bill proposed by him in 1886 and then rejected in the Commons, especially as regards the retention of Irish members in the Imperial Parliament of Westminster. The points on which all parties in G. Britain and Ireland who support Home Rule are agreed are these :—
1st.—A parliament at Dublin to legislate for all matters pertaining to Ireland.
2nd.—Irish members (not holding seats at Dublin) to be elected to the Parliament at Westminster.
3rd.—Ireland to be still an integral part of the U. Kingdom, and garriso ed by British troops.
4th.—No alteration in the Customs administration ; no duties on British goods. All Customs revenue to belong still to the Imperial Treasury.
5th.—The parliament and people of Ireland to be subservient as heretofore to the King, Lords, and Commons of the U. Kingdom and to the existing British Constitucion.
6th.—No State church in Ireland ; no endowments from public funds for religious purposes.
7th.—No pains, penalties or disqualifications on political or sectarian grounds.
The points on which nothing has yet been decided, but which will necessarily be defined in the Home Rule bill are these :—
1st.—Whether the Dublin Parliament is to consist simply of a House of Deputies, or whether there is also to be an Upper House or Senate.
2nd.—Whether the Viceroy is to be appointed by the Crown for life, or for a term of years, and whether a prince of the royal family.
3rd.—Whether the Judges and Police are to be appointed and paid by the Crown, or by the Dublin Parliament.
4th.—Whether Ireland is to contribute any more than her share of the Customs-revenue to the Imperial Treasury.
Of the above 4 points the third is the only one on which any serious divergence of opinion may arise. The general feeling in England seems to be in favor of the Imperial Government retaining absolute power over the Judges and the Police, in order to protect the interests of landlords, Orangemen or others from aggression by the local authorities.
It is understood that the Irish Debt, as at present, will remain a charge on the Imperial Treasury. This debt may be said to have had its origin in the Union, as it was a mere trifle before the ill-omened year 1801. Its growth was follows :—

Year.	£
1793.....	2,220,000
1801.....	31,950,000
1809.....	77,450,000
1817.....	88,400,000

From the year 1800, when Pitt seized the Irish Exchequer, down to 1817 a succession of corrupt and profligate men were sent over to Dublin to manage Irish finances, until in the latter year the British Government shut up the Irish Treasury, amended the Act of Union, and took over the whole of the Irish debt. For this reason Ireland is to be exempted from the payment of a debt which she never contracted.
The above is a faithful picture of the actual position of affairs as regards Great Britain and Ireland, and of the all-important question which is to be fought out in the House of Commons before the close of the year 1892.
The experience of the 91 years which have elapsed since the Union shews what a fatal error Pitt made, by placing in antagonism two nations that were living in harmony and mutual good-will before the year 1800. Had there been no Union Ireland would be to-day as prosperous as Scotland. The Duke of Leinster was right when he said to George III: "If Your Majesty signs the Act of Union it will drain Ireland of her last guinea."

LOSS OF THE ROSALES

EXTRACTS FROM THE OFFICIAL REPORT ON THE BRITISH NAVAL MANOEUVRES, 1888

(Communicated.)

"To the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty etc.
Rattlesnake class (550 tons.)
From the reports of the officers who lately commanded them it may be assumed that for the purpose for which they were designed, they are satisfactory sea-boats, and, provided they are handled with care, are safe vessels.
Under all circumstances of heavy weather they seem to be extremely lively and to ship a good deal of water, except when steaming easy against the sea or running at speed before it. (Referring to suggestions for improvements the report then says.) These proposals which appear to merit immediate consideration are : (1) To generally strengthen the hull in this type of vessel ; (2) to raise the freeboard forward ; and (3) to turtle-back the forecastle.
After reviewing the reports on the manœuvres Admiral Sir A. W. A, Hood, Senior Sea Lord of the Admiralty, also finds "that these vessels (Rattlesnake class) are satisfactory sea-boats and safe vessels, provided that they are carefully handled." He also says "the proposals made with regard to the improvement of this class are embodied in the "Sharpshooter class." The Sharpshooter is a steel vessel of 750 tons displacement, 230ft. length, 27ft. breadth and 8ft. 3in. mean draught.
That well-known yachtsman and student of naval affairs, and former Lord of the Admiralty, Lord Brassey, who was an eye-witness of the manœuvres, in a letter to the Times says, among other things. "While we have every reason to be satisfied with the types already produced, (Rattlesnake and Sandfly classes, the latter of only 450 tons) in the construction of the future it will be desirable to secure more power to contend with bad weather and more convenience and comfort for long service at sea. These objects can only be attained by adding to tonnage."
It will be seen from the above that the Admiralty, prominent naval officers, and others competent to form an opinion of value on the subject, were not fully satisfied with the sea-going qualities of the Rattlesnake class of torpedo gunboats or torpedo-boat catchers, still they insist they are safe sea-going vessels "if properly handled."
The manœuvres referred to took place in the Irish Channel and North Sea, and some very heavy weather was experienced.
As the Rosales is a much more modern vessel than the Rattlesnake and of 615 tons displacement instead of 550, it is to be assumed that she embodied some improvement on the Rattlesnake and was more seaworthy.
On reading carefully official accounts of the behaviour of vessels of the same general class as the Rosales, while on cruises during which severe storms were experienced, one cannot help forming the opinion that it is only when navigated by officers who are thorough-going seamen, and who are quick to see and quick to act, and know how to do exactly the right thing in case of emergency, that this description of vessels can be classed under the head of "safe sea going." The Rosales should not be confounded with ordinary torpedo boats, the largest of which are only about 130 tons displacement.
I may observe that the steaming away of the Brown and Mayo appears to have been an error of judgment. It would seem as though the officer in command of the squadron had perfect faith in the sea-going qualities of this class of vessel, while in Europe, where more experience has been had with them, it is customary, when squadrons are cruising with such vessels in rough weather, to slow down the larger vessels and keep company with the smaller, so as to be ready to lend assistance in case of necessity, and it has often been necessary to do so.

B.

14th July, 1892.

Mr. Editor,
Allow me to point out an error that appears in your account of the loss of the Rosales. You refer to her as being of the same class as the Comodoro Py, whereas the Rosales is more than five times the displacement of the Py, and is some 60 to 70 feet longer and 8 feet wider. In addition, she is far more minutely sub divided into water-tight compartments, and her circulating pumps are arranged to draw from the bilge as well, so that it is difficult to see how, under the worst conditions of weather, there should be the slightest difficulty in keeping her free of water. With two, or even more of her compartments filled, she ought still to float.
In the case of the Py, she is fitted with 6 steam-ejectors capable collectively of discharging 240 tons of water per hour, and in addition she has her bilge and donkey-pumps. With her ejectors alone she would be able to empty herself, if filled up to the water-line, in 25 minutes, and, as I have said, the Rosales was even better fitted in this respect.
The Rattlesnake class, of which the Espora, Rosales, and the Chilian boats Condell and Lynch are the most modern and improved type, was specially designed to keep the sea for lengthened periods, and to maintain a high rate of speed in bad weather.
The loss of the Rosales can only be attributed either to her being manned by an incapable and inefficient staff, or to such extreme conditions of weather as rarely occur.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

EVE OF THE ELECTIONS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

June 17th.

Owing to some slight accident to her machinery, the R. M. s s. Tamar, which left yesterday for Lisbon and the River Plate, has put back and is now in dock in Southampton. It is expected she will sail again to-night or to-morrow morning. The delay will, I hope, admit of your receiving by this mail a full account of the great event of the hour, the meeting of the Ulster convention which takes place to-day at Belfast. This anti-Home Rule, anti-Catholic and anti-Celtic demonstration will, it is supposed, echo and confirm the words of Mr. T. W. Russell in the Graphic, who in concluding his statistical and warning letters in that journal, tells us to-day that Home Rule in Ireland means "not Peace but the Sword." This plain language of the Scottish stone-mason, who champions protestantism and unionism in Ireland is wholesome if for no other reason than it expresses seriously the serious sentiments of a numerical minority who in wealth and energy are more than a match for all the rest of Ireland. He is a poor Home Ruler who would blink the fact. Indeed, when here, in the height of a London season, our minds occupied with the "Siegfried" and "Triston and Isolde" at Covent Garden, Madame Bernhardt and Jane Hading, the cossacks and "gauchos" at Buffalo Bill's, the Gold Cup at Ascot and the daily amusements of a rich, cultivated selfish, cynical world, who laugh equally at the plaint of the native Irish as "a howl" and at the screams of the descendants of the Old Scotch and English settlers and planters in North Ireland as "ulsterics," one is inclined to welcome the war cry from Belfast. It may sound like the distant boom of the French guns to the dancers in the Brussels ball room on the eve of Quatre Bras; or like the cries of the mob a hundred years ago to revellers in Versailles. It will make evident to the happy and thoughtless that life has its serious side. It will convince politicians that soft answers in parliament may turn away wrath, but they will not change human nature, which more than the skill and eloquence and tricks of statesmen finally determines the course of events. A strange trumpet-call, a shot in earnest, scatters the crowd of cynics, faddists and jokers who style themselves- "the world" and think their caperings influence political affairs. We may see to-night that the Belfast convention has passed off like any other political meeting with much empty talk and vapouring and wonder why we gave it a thought. Do not imagine that in fear and trembling we are all wearing orange and blue ribbons. Far otherwise. Instead of feeling fortified by the sound of martial preparations in the Irish protestant counties, the government itself has lowered its flag to Mr. Tim Healy and Mr. Sexton, on the Irish Education question. Mr. Balfour himself, in the face of possible events and the importance of the coming elections, has put aside his dandy metaphysics and his lackadaisical manner and, with the first but indubitable tinge of grey which it is sorrowful to see in his whiskers and moustache, has become serious, and takes a serious view of the Irish question; and that is all we ask. The First Lord of the Treasury, in reply to Mr. Sexton, and "with the "consent of his colleagues"—the redoubtable champion of the Ulster Protestants, Lord Salisbury included—has agreed to allow the Catholic schools of Christian Brothers to participate in the Government educational grant. He has agreed to allow Catholic symbols in the schools and in fact to perpetuate in North Ireland that "Catholic atmosphere" at which at the same hour Mr. T. W. Russell and his friends were railing. What can this mean? It means that the stars in their courses are fighting for Home Rule, only possible through the decay of small and traditional prejudices. While English Tories grow tolerant the Catholics in France are beginning to swim also with the tide, and yielding to the iterated injunctions of the Head of the Church, recognise the Republic. The priesthood in Ireland will equally recognise their position under Home Rule as a political institution. There are people who say they will not, and like Mr. T. W. Russell they proclaim "Home Rule" to mean "Rome Rule," etc. But similar predictions were made at the era of Catholic Emancipation and have been falsified. On the other side, it may please Archbishop Vaughan—quite a pet in English high-life—to say that England herself will be Catholic in a few years hence. Dr. Vaughan is only an Archbishop, and his opinion is not more infallible than that of Mrs Besant, who thinks we shall be all Theosophites. A more practical point is that equality which the Catholic priesthood in Ireland seek in common with dissenting ministers in England. The question is political, and by political alliances and tact they will secure equality. Let us change the scene to a purely political region where similar difficulties and heartburnings exist—difficulties that can be surmounted by manly intellects and liberal sentiments.
Mr. Gladstone has just been waited upon by Mr. Shipton and other delegates of Trades Unions to "converse" on a sore subject, the Eight Hours question. We can be all proud of the English working men's quiet and sensible deputation, and knowing Mr. Gladstone's economic views and the Home Rule "bee in his bonnet" we can find no great fault with the manner he discussed the difficulty with these stalwart Englishmen. They remind me of a remark made by a shrewd and clever Engineer—a Scot—who as representative of a large engineering company had to receive Trades Union delegates to arrange a strike of the Company's employés. "You would be astonished, "he said." to see these fellows and hear how they spoke. Great headed men, each one of them looking as if he ought to be Prime Minister."
I believe it ; but these fellows have bees in their bonnets too, and Mr. Gladstone, who at first fenced with them and appealed to his advanced age and his absorption in one subject, the passing of a Home Rule Bill for Ireland, was able at last to meet them by the old tactics of dividing their opinions, which were not all agreed as to the precise mode in which the legislature should interfere. Finally, with considerable cleverness, he said : "Before you go, tell me what day you would like fixed for the London elections ?"
They said unto him : "Saturday." This delighted Mr. Gladstone, because he knew that the Tory Government, with the experience of the London County Council election before their eyes, had been devising all manner of dirty little schemes to postpone the elections, so that the boroughs should not vote on a Saturday. However, he found that the Trades Council had already sent a communication to Mr. Balfour on the subject. We shall hear the result to-night, when, after an intoler able amount of Salisburian shuffling and diplomacy, the First Lord of the Treasury will finally announce the real dates of the elections, the writs for which we know are to go out on the 28th inst.
The walls of London streets are already being garnished with election addresses, union jacks and portraits of Mr. Gladstone.
The Tory program has been expounded by Mr. Balfour himself at St. James's Hall at a dinner given in his honour by the National Union of Conservative and Constitutional Associations. Among the spectators was Mr. H. H. Champion, the gentleman-compositor former socialist and apparently at present unattached politician holding a watching brief for Tory democracy. Mr. Balfour's promises consisted of social reforms for England as good, and better too, than any the Gladstonians would be likely to offer, except in speeches. For Ireland he promised Local Government, and public works which would do more for the prosperity of the country than a 'thousand' parliaments. For Scotland he seemed to hint at public works as a remedy for Crofter grievances, and also admitted that Scotland should have the local management of her private bill legislation without the expense and trouble of coming to West minster. As for London, which is getting to be almost a fourth nation, or with Wales a fifth in the Union, he seemed to acknowledge that ground rents should be more severely taxed than they are, and if Ireland, owing to the decrease in her population, was over-represented in Parliament, the surplus seats might be given to the British metropolis. He was quite certain of a Conservative victory in the coming elections ; and really in consideration of his promises of Radical and Socialistic reforms, it would not seem to matter which party is victorious, only that throughout his orations the nephew seemed oppressed by an avuncular incubus, and kept reminding his sometimes glum-looking and alarmed audience, shining in the splendour of Tory shirt fronts and buttonholes, that all these terribly radical reforms were subject to Imperial interests, the integrity of the Empire and to the exigencies of Lord Salisbury's foreign policy, which "hec otia fecit."

Ed. Note. On May 31st we published the following figures :—

June 1891...	do.	283
Dec. 1891...	261,000,000	273

As regards trade-returns the official report shews :—

Year	Imports $ gold	Exports $ gold
1886.....	95,400,000	69,800,000
1887.....	117,200,000	84,400,000

1891.....	67,100,000	96,700,000

But it must be observed that the Customs valuation was outrageous, being 50 per cent too high in imports and 20 per cent in exports, so that the real trade was :—

	Imports $ gold	Exports $ gold
1886.....	63,600,000	58,200,000
1887.....	78,100,000	70,300,000

The above is, of course, exclusive of the preciouа metals.
The census of 1869 gave a population of 1,837,000 souls ; the latest official estimates, for 1890, are 4,046,000.

THE LIQUIDATION OF THE ENGLISH BANK

Before either the Chambers or the creditors of this Bank accede to the request recently made by the Liquidators of the local branch for an extension of the moratorium, there are several important points which require explanation.
The first question that naturally arises is, what is the present position of the Bank towards its creditors ? To assist us in determining this, we have before us the published balance sheet of the Bank, dated May 31, 1892, and the „Statement of Liquidation" bearing the same date, published a few days ago.
Turning first to the Balance sheet. From the liabilities or Dr. side, we eliminate the capital, bonds deposited, and other items for which the Branch here is not responsible in cash. This leaves actual liabilities as follow.—

Deposits at sight.....	$ 1,274.977
Deposits on term.....	" 403.340
Emission.....	" 8,530
Compensable Certificates...	" 187,407
Personal Certificates.....	" 672,818
Total.....	$ 2,547,072

The liability of the Bank, then, on May 31, would seem to be $2,547,072. Yet in the "Statement of Liquidation" we find the "purely local liability" stated at $1,382,072. There is a difference here of $1,165,000. What has become of this? Referring again to the "Statement" we find this very sum $1,165,000 entered as "Compensable accounts" and included in the "total liquidated and to be liquidated." Now, what in the name of Banking is meant by "Compensable accounts" and how is it that in two statements bearing the same date we find this large difference in the liabilities of the Bank? From which of the items from the Balance sheet quoted above is this sum of $1,165,000 thus suddenly deducted ? Can any one explain?
That the actual liabilities of the Bank still stand at the higher figure, we can prove in another manner. In the Statement the assets and liabilities are balanced at $6,333,883. We will show—what the Statement does "not" show — how this is reached.—

Cash liabilities.....	$ 2,547,072
Various debtors.....	" 504,756
Bills located in Europe....	" 1,129,000
Bills in suspense.....	" 903,053
	5,083,883
Capital.....	1,250,000
Total.....	$ 6,333,883

Now, here is something else that requires explanation. The actual liabilities of the Bank as represented to the Chambers last July were stated at $3,266,010. The liabilities on May 31, 1892, we are told, are reduced to $1,382,072. The difference amounts to $1,883,937, which may therefore be taken as the amount really paid off. And of this, according to the Balance-sheet of May 31, $633,096 corresponds to compensable certificates received. Deducting this, there is left $1,250,840, and this, then, represents the amount realised by the Liquidating Committee out of assets represented to the Chambers as worth $7,117,637. In twelve months they have realised less than 20 per cent !
But enough of bewildering figures. Our sole object in making these calculations and quotations has been to show that the published statements and balance of the Liquidating Committee lead to nothing but confusion. The creditors have a right to some more explicit and intelligible statement of the affairs of the Bank, something which an ordinary mortal can understand and follow. Let us have a simple statement of the Credit Balances and Debit Balances, such as it is the custom of Banks here to furnish to their London offices. And then, let us have a reasonable valuation of the remaining assets of the Bank, made by an independent investigating Committee composed of men acquainted with the market. By this means some actual idea of the liquidation may be attained, and this in what the creditors should insist upon without loss of time.
And now we come to the attitude of the people in London, Here again, much explanation is required. We want to know why it is they have so entirely ignored this market in their negotiations, and how they can justifiy the sending of money to their creditors in Buenos Aires and none to their creditors here? The reorganising Company has made a call on the shareholders of £10 a share, this should bring in some £750,000. Is Montevideo to see none of that? £200,000 has been sent to Buenos Aires, and some, we know not how much, is required to carry out the reorganisation in England. Where is Montevideo's share. Why is it not forthcoming, and why do not the Liquidators see that we get it? And, furthermore, the shareholders have to satisfy an extra call of £2-10s. per share, which they were summarily told was to compensate a very questionable extraordinary liability on the note issue in this Republic. This should produce £187,500, If any one has first claim on that sum, it is certainly the branch here. This is near $900,000, and this alone would pay the creditors here a dividend of over 60 per cent on their claims, according to the Statements.
When the Bank first failed, there was some excuse for Government to interfere, but there is none now. The matter simply rests between the Bank and its creditors.
Altogether then, the more we study this business the less satisfactory it appears. This feeling is growing amongst the creditors and must soon find expression. The Liquidators are not to be commended for having left the application to the last moment. but there is still time to resist it. This we advise the creditors now to do, or at all events to resist a renewal of the moratorium for more than two months, which would give time for negotiations with London. We would also advise them to insist upon a searching investigation into the affairs of the Bank, a revaluation of the remaining assets, the appointment of an investigating committee representing no one but the creditors, the publication of intelligible balance sheets and statements, and, lastly, the payment of the liquidators in proportion to results of work done. Then, perhaps, affairs may assume a satisfactory aspect. At present they are very much the reverse.

SAVING LIFE AT SEA.

Mr. Editor,
The navies of the world, according to Mulhall's Dictionary of 1882, number 2208 ships divided among 16 different nations, and no doubt the number is since increased. The distance from here to Lisbon is 5,000 miles, and therefore if 50 ships were given 100 miles each as "beat," the result would be a sort of flying bridge from here to Europe, affording you a sure refuge in case of sinkage of your vessel. The present actual system of going to sea is most irrational ; when you take to the boats everyone hopes Providence will send a vessel to save them, instead of making sure beforehand that there will be one there. In time of peace surely the war vessels might as well be doing this as what they are doing, and they might secure at same time as floating P. O's sale of newspapers etc. which would very likely pay any expense there might be. When two or three raft loads of first class passengers have been lost in the wild Atlantic, some such scheme as this may be thought of ; and if any existing Government possessed any inductive notions as to what its duties are, it would be done at once. It is striking evidence of the truth of Darwin's theory that it is not done. What else can account for the fatuity with which people trust themselves to cross the ocean on lumps of iron, carrying within itself such a terrible element of self-destruction as the passenger steamer of to-day does with its furnaces and boilers?
Would it not be an honour to the Argentines to take the initiative in this International undertaking ?

Yours truly.
Spectator.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Rosales question is still the exciting topic of the day with our Argentine friends ; and the interest attached to it was considerably warmed up yesterday by the arrest, the moment they put foot on shore, of Captain Funes and all the other officers and men who have survived the catastrophe ; not only this, but they are all "incomunicados." They will be tried by court martial : and also Admiral Solier, who will be ordered back when he arrives at Palos. The Admiral Brown and 25 de Mayo arrived safely at Bahia on Wednesday.
The Deputies met yesterday ; 46 members present. The first thing on the cards was a message from the Executive asking a pension for a widow. The Geographical Society sent all the honourable Deputies a copy of its fine new Atlas. Deputy Paz asked for 15 sittings' vacation. Deputy Obligado presented another pension petition, for the widow of Dr. Peron, and it was voted "sobre tablas." Deputy Gilbert was then elected President of the House by 34 votes; there being 19 for Dr. Zorrilla. As first Vice President, Dr. Lastra got 31, and Dr. Garcia got 43 as 2nd Vice. Dr. Gilbert took the Chair, and the House took up the order of the day. $60,000 gold were then voted with a light heart to erect a statue to Dr. Velez Sarsfield in Cordoba, and after some further formalities the House rose.
Don Alberte Rosende y Mitre has proposed to Government to allow him to collect the debt due to the National Bank for assisted passages to immigrants, which amounts to the enormous sum of $5,504,704. He asks 35 per cent commission.
The French in Montevideo beat their countrymen here in the gay and festive line on Thursday. They paraded the streets with flags and bands playing the Marseillaise, and showed their patriotism far more enthusiastically than the Gauls here. Why was this thus?
Another wreck. The East Coast must be shifting its place. Yesterday the loss of another Brazilian steamer, the Rio Parana, was reported, on the same dangerous part of the B. O. coast where the Solimoes, Pelotas and three other steamers were recently wrecked.
We feel much pleasure in saluting the Revd. W. Wilson, who has arrived to take the Revd. M. Porteous's place in the Scotch Church. The latter will sail for home on Wednesday next, and we join his host of friends in wishing him a pleasant voyage.
Mails again. The Tamar and Aquitaine start for Europe on the 20th.: letter-bags closing at 10 a. m. To-day there are mails for Uruguay at 9 a.m. and Montevideo at 4 p.m.
Señora Valvassura, the talented leading actress of the dramatic company at the Politeama, will take her benefit next Thursday night, and she ought to have the bumper she deserves. The 'Dama de las Camelias' of Dumas is the play she has selected, and she is said by many to be equal to Sarah the Great in the part.
The Committee of the British Hospital Bazaar have decided that the dance promised to the ladies shall take place at the Operai Italiani on 27th or 28th inst.
At Montevideo the other night, two young students of the University who had been 'plucked' at their examinations in History, thought they would have a 'quid pro quo' for their lost feathers ; so they lay in wait for their Professor, Dr. Lapeyre, gave him a stiff dressing on the head with their walking-sticks, and then went to the nearest Comisaria to give themselves up to the police. Queer youngsters.
The papers mention a gentleman who, for several days past, enters the Recoleta Cemetery at dawn and remains on his knees, with his eyes turned skywards, till dusk, when he leaves, without having uttered a word all day. The poor man must be as mad as a hatter.
The Rosales Fund appears to have been taken in hands with unbounded enthusiasm all over the country, and the Government is likely to get a good part of the £50,000 required to buy a new vessel. Mr. Olmi, the well-known auctioneer, has offered to hold a Regal Auction for the Fund and hand over to it all his comission.
The London papers say that the failure of the crops and consequent famine in Russia last year, and which are only too likely to be repeated this season, are due to the sowing of the same crops year after year, and the laud is now thoroughly exhausted. Farmers in this country, especially in the older Santa-Fe colonies, should take a note of this.
While at the Golden Wedding powwow of his father-in-law in Copenhagen, the Prince of Wales, on the part of Her Majesty, invited the Czar to pay her a visit at Windsor. The Autocrat's answer is not yet known.
The Influenza Fiend is having a high old time of it in Chile. The demon has floored so many Senators that the Upper House has ceased to meet till they recover. In Valparaiso there is downright panic, owing to the leaps and bounds of the death rate every day.
President Herrea's financial Message has at last seen the light. H.E. makes a virtue of necessity and expresses a holy horror of even the bare mention of resorting to shinplasters. Like President Pellegrini, he thinks half the financial muddle is due to "want of confidence." Our London friends say it is want of something else that has planted Uruguay in the financial "pantano" in which it is now stuck, up to its neck.
A lifeboat of a novel character has been invented by Sims and Edison. It is made in such a way that it can be directed from the shore to any wreck, in the same way as a torpedo. The advantage claimed for it is that the boat is without any crew when starting ; but having taken on board as many of the persons from the wreck as it will hold, it can be rowed ashore.
The death of Dr. Manuel Porcel de Peralta removes one of the oldest and most eminent of the Argentine Medical Faculty, and it has caused general regret. The funeral yesterday was very largely attended. The death of the distinguished physician reminds us of an incident in which he figured over twenty years ago. He was returning one night from a professional visit to Belgrano when, near the Plaza Recoleta, then a very dangerous place after dark, he heard cries for help ; he stopped his carriage and went to the spot, where he found a dead man and saw another running away. The doctor fired at him, examined the corpse, and drove on to tell the police about the affair. He then went home to his residence in Calle Esmeralda close to Plaza San Martin. An hour later a man wounded by a pistol bullet in the back called to have the wound attended to, saying he had been attacked by footpads at the Recoleta. He was the man wounded by the doctor himself, who dressed the wound and let the fellow go, knowing that he himself would be the villain's next victim if he handed him over to the police.
This reminds us of another curious affair in which a German or Danish doctor (we forget his name) figured some years before. He was returning home in his gig one night late, when, opposite San Salvador College in Calle Callao,

Hayward's Paste Dip

The best test of a Sheep Dip

PRACTICAL RESULTS OF USING A RELIABLE DIP WHICH CURES THE SCAB AND IMPROVES THE WOOL.

The following testimonial is received from Messrs Ronald & Rogers, the celebrated Brokers for River Plate wools at Liverpool who sold a number of lots of wool from some of the largest Estancieros in the River Plate.

COPY TESTIMONIAL

Dear Sirs—
Amongst the River Plate Wools which we have sold here this season, our attention has been called to several clips which had been treated with Hayward's "Paste" Sheep Dip, and we have pleasure in testifying to the freedom from scab, and handsome lustrous appearance of these wools, which we consider materially assisted in their obtaining such very good prices.

ON 'CHANGE.

Friday, July 15th.
Gold opened and closed firm this morning. There were a large number of strong sellers for cash, but every dollar was quickly absorbed; outside there was greater enquiry for gold on time. About fourteen thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened $53.60, rose steadily, and closed at 53.90, say 231.48 % premium. Sovereigns closed at $16.66, say 230¾ %, but nominal. The market closed with sellers of ounces at the closing rate and buyers ten cents lower.
Patriotic Bonds were steady, but business was dull; the price for cash closed at 70.90. Internal Bonds closed at 63.20. Catalinas were dull at 94. National Cedulas C were done at 89 and D at 86. La Plata Cedulas ranged firm at 29.60 to 29.80.
Exchange and discounts continue the same.
The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

The National Government has authorized the Government of the province of Buenos Ayres to exercise at the termini of the railways here a strict supervision over all the produce arriving. This supervision is already being carried out in the Mercado Central de Frutos and will be extended to the Plazas Once and Constitucion. This kind of thing should not be tolerated; it is a fresh obstacle to business and is a serious inconvenience, as any protest may be urged to delay delivery of goods and produce. What the Provincial Government ought to do is to exercise such supervision within its own jurisdiction, at those stations in the province where goods are dispatched and where "guias" are drawn up.
Barraqueros and consignees beg to call the attention of Lord Mayor Bollini to the scandalous condition of the streets at the Barracas bridge. Nearly all the traffic of the Mercado Central de Frutos goes through these streets, and the approaches of the bridge are in a deplorable state. A gang of men could easily remedy matters.
Several parcels of wool arrived at the Plaza Constitucion this morning, consigned to Devoto, Gallegos, Balbiani y Cia. One special parcel from La Gama, of "pasto fuerte" quality, attracted much notice; another lot of "pasto tierno" from Ayacucho, consigned to Viuda Apellaniz, was also much admired. Both lots will be put up for sale to-morrow.
Some exceptionally fine parcels of wheat were received to-day at the Plaza Constitucion; they were consigned to M. Z. Rojas y Cia. The parcels came from the farm of Scipioni Sifoni in Guamini; the quality was French and Barleta. Other parcels from La Gama, consigned to Mr. Enrique Bonifacio, and from the farm of Isidoro Ramallo, were of very good quality. Mr. Emilio Grapollo received from Hinojo a splendid parcel of oats and barley. Messrs. Pedro and Antonio Lanusse received some special lots of barley, for malting; this lot came from Tornquist, on the Southern Railway.
Large daily arrivals of yellow and morocho maize are reported in the Mercado Central de Frutos. The bulk is consigned to Unzue, Kelsey & Co., Liborio Novao, Ojea & Co., A. Tolz., L. Molleres y Co., Devoto, Gallegos, Balbiani y Co., Ghiraldo Saenz y Co., M. Llamazares, Alonso y Cia., Pegasano Hms. y Repetto, etc. etc. All the maize in question comes from all quarters of the province and the quality is simply splendid. The corn sells freely for export. Some speculations were reported yesterday at 5.65$, corn to be received in the Mercado Central de Frutos.
Maize fetches the high price of 5,65$ per 100 kilos in the Mercado Central owing to the advantage of its being 'disponible', stored in the market, and handy for removal. Sellers of maize now ask 5.80$ per 100 kilos to deliver at Rio Santiago, and 5.4 $ up river. The export of maize at present is simply colossal not only here but at all the up river ports. We can state with satisfaction that Argentine maize is pronounced in Europe to be the best in the world and is fetching a higher price than the corn from any other country. Argentine maize is quoted at 13 frs. American maize, meantime, is selling at 12 frs. per 100 kilos. Unfortunately such is not the case with Argentine wheat which is selling at 16 frs. per 100 kilos: export of wheat for the moment is next to nil, in spite of the fall in freights and the rise in gold.
Mr. Diego Ramsay has handed to Don Carlos Lix Klett, Inspector General of the Argentine Committee of the Chicago Exhibition, two sheepskins of extraordinary size, exceptional quality of wool, and condition: they come from the Santa Catalina estancia, in the Sauce Corto, Great Southern Railway, belonging to Messrs. Cadmus and Hudson. The skins are worth inspection.
In reference to the "Obras de Salubridad" it is interesting to note that the Government are obeying their own decrees and setting their houses in order. Mr. Percie Cowper, C.E., has been appointed to prepare the necessary plans of the Government buildings, including of course the Casa Rosada. The appointment appears to be a wise one, as the aforesaid engineer, in addition to having designed and constructed many cloacas in this city, has had practical experience dating as far back as 1876, including the delicate question of hospital drainage in England.
It was very generally said on 'Change to-day that on the 1st prox. the New English Bank will open in this market, and that the Bank here is quite independent of the Bank in Montevideo. The commercial community welcomes the opening of this Bank as one of the best signs of returning prosperity in the market.

The loss of another steamer on the Brazilian Coast has startled the market. Not for many years have we had such a list of disasters on the Brazilian Coast.

The half month's liquidation to-day was a much heavier business than most people anticipated, and it reminded one of old times to see the crowd of brokers running about with long liquidation lists. Business on 'Change has certainly improved within the last few months, and money is so very easy that people are puzzled what to put it into. We look forward to a brisk business in the Emprestitos before the end of the year.

Messrs. Unzue, Leloir and Alvear have subscribed one thousand shats. each to the Rosales Fund. This is the largest subscription so far given. The total of the subscription already down must cover the first cost of a new ship.

Peanuts in nice paper packages are now sold with camelias and violets at the Bolsa door. The peanuts may be accepted as a London innovation. The next move will probably be the hot roasted potatoes, of which the Throgmorton me nare so fond.

With much pleasure we state that Mr. Pearson, of S. B Hale and Co., is now convalescent and is able to come to his office. His numerous friend held a levee there to welcome him back. Mr Jones, Manager of the English Bank, is now also completely recovered, but there are still numbers of merchants, brokers, bankers and others on the broad of their backs with influenza, which has taken greater hold this season than ever before known in Buenos Ayres

Good news from La Plata. All the foreclosure mortgage auctions we hear are to be suspended, and a special project is being hatched to facilitate the liquidation of the bank.

One of the largest estancia sales in Entre Rios is reported. The Uriburu estancia with stock etc. for 1 million nats. cash.

News has arrived from Genoa of the death of Mr. Canale, the proprietor of the Aguila confiteria. Mr. Canale retired from Buenos Ayres a few years ago having made a fortune selling "caramelos," he purchased a nice property outside of Genoa where he closed his chapter.

Advices from Entre Rios are favorable respecting the Jewish colonies, which we hear are most prosperous and well and ably managed, and all the colonists there are thriving and doing well.

There seems to be no sign of crisis about San José de Flores, new houses going up in every direction, and the Basque brick makers up to their knees making bricks by the million.

The sale of the far famed Buschental estancia Santa Lucia, Banda Oriental, at 14 dollars gold per square is reported. There was a mortgagee on the property and the mortgage bought it in. The place seems to have gone cheap.

Respecting the above estancia we understand that it comprised two sueries, that is three sq. leagues or 30 sq. miles, and had very fine plantations of Eucalyptus. The sheep were of many fine breeds, and each flock was minded on foot by an Alsatian shepherd who had a Scotch collie dog; no horses allowed. There was a man called the French Robison Crusoe living on an island at the confluence of the rivers Santa Lucia and San José, who planted 100,000 trees for Mr. Buschenthal on halves. The estancia house and offices were very fine; from the hall door could be distinctly seen the Cerro, 40 miles distant.

Advices from Chubut report numerous parties settling in the valley of the Corcovado with large flocks of sheep brought from the southern partidos of the province of Buenos Aires. It seems there is no finer land in the republic for sheep farming than this valley, with soft grasses and abundance of fresh water, and as the settlers pay no rent for their puestos, they are all on the high road to fortune.

Mr. Chamberlain, manager of the Uruguay Railway, has arrived back in Montevideo after a pleasant trip to Europe. As there is no welcoming on Change in Montevideo, we welcome him here.

We hear on good authority that on the entry of the new National Government, one of the first moves will be to resuscitate the Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres. The new President could not hit upon a more popular step, and if the management be confided to merchants of various nationalities as in bye gone years, we promise the president that in 6 months the bank will be on its legs again, and all town depositing money in it.

Native industries are springing up so fast around us now that our readers will not be much surprised to hear upon the authority of Mr. Wenck, the well-known city jeweller, that nearly all the gold watch chains selling in the shops are made in this city.

In view of a question about jurisdiction over the new channel near Martin Garcia between the Argentine and Uruguayan Governments, the dredging of the channel has been stopped. As the dredge appointed for the work is now lying idle, the Minister of Finance has urged his colleague of the Interior to place the dredge in the Canal del Puerto, where it can be turned to good account and where its services are required.

The Chairman of the Board of Public Works has sent to the National Government the official measurements of the line of the Transandine Railway between Stations Uspallata and Rio Blanco: the length of line from Mendoza to Rio Blanco is 121,283 kilometres. The approval of the Government is required, as the guarantee accounts are in question.

The Managing Committee of the Sociedad de Beneficencia Italiana have appealed to the Government to be exempted from payment of water rates.

The Minister of War issued instructions to-day to the Committee of the City Improvement Works to construct the connecting works with the sewers in the barracks at the corner of Calles Pichincha and Brazil.

The Chairman of the Board of Railways has sent in his report on the guarantee account of the Buenos Ayres Pacific Railway for the half-year running from October 1st 1891 to March 31st 1892, amounting to £80,928 13s. 3d. The Chairman is of opinion that as this railway company owes the National Government 1,459,265$ this guarantee bill should stand over. The Procurador del Tesoro confirms the report of the Board of Railways and advises that the bill for guarantee be returned to the company or sent to the Archives of the Government House. It is quite plain that the Government does not intend paying the guarantee.

Another Brazilian steamer has gone on the rocks—the Rio Parana of the Brazilian Lloyd. This company has been singularly unfortunate of late years; the coast is lined with the wreckage of its packets, five or six at least.

Gold ruled dull, but steady, at the second ring. Ounces closed at $53.80, say 230½ % premium. Patriotic Bonds were firmer than in the morning. La Plata Cedu as weakened.

The Caja de Conversion burned some more old notes: $100,000 of the issues under laws of 1887, 1890, 1891; $522,000 law 1887, and $250,000 handed in by the British Bank in exchange for new notes.

The Minister of Finance has fixed the rate of gold at 322 for payment of Customs dues.

Government has authorized the Caja de Conversion to pay the interest on the Home Loan Bonds ordered to be withdrawn in August by recent decree of June 30th, and also on the cheques given for same up to the date on which they are payable in August by the Bank of the Nation.

HORSFORDS
BAKING POWDER
BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind. It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.
What a wonderful result is this!"

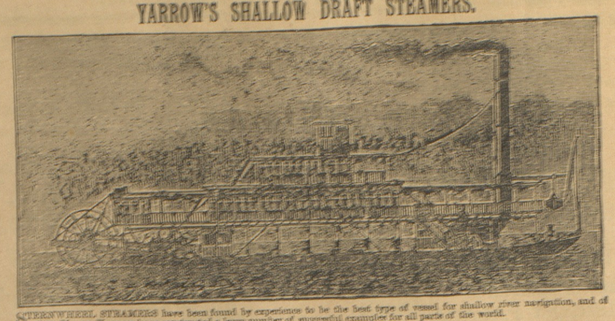
YARROW'S SHALLOW DRAFT STEAMERS.



STERNWHEEL STEAMERS have been found by experience to be the best type of vessel for shallow river navigation, and of these Messrs. Yarrow have constructed a large number of successful examples for all parts of the world.
Vessels on this system are constructed, when required, to draw as little as 6 inches.
Messrs. Yarrow lately built the sternwheelers "Mosquito" and "Herald" for the British Government, for service on the Zambesi.
They were constructed in floatable sections (capable of shipment), which were simply bolted together, avoiding thereby the costly and difficult process of riveting up and launching.
For full particulars apply to—
YARROW & CO., Shipbuilders,
POPLAR, LONDON.

At the Estancia Grande, the property of GEORGE BELL, there are always on Sale Clydesdale and Cleveland Stallions, Durham Bulls, and Lincoln Rams, also Potros suitable for carriages and heavy draught.

As all animals offered for sale at this Estancia are by stallions, bulls, etc., imported direct from England by the owner, it would therefore be advantageous for intending purchasers to inspect the same before purchasing elsewhere.

En nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482
El Miercoles 10 de Agosto
a las 2 de la tarde
Remataremos por cuenta y orden de una Sociedad y por liquidacion total de la misma, 233,762 hectareas, 66 areas y 18 centiareas ubicadas en la Provincia de Santa Fe, donde como todo el mundo sabe, existen las mas vastas y ricas colonias de agricultores de la Republica y cuyos habitantes se conocen la crisis que ha abrumado al resto de ellos, debido a las esplendidas y abundantes cosechas que les han dado estas sin iguales tierras.
La ubicacion de estas queda al Oeste del gran ferro carril que arranca de la capital de la republica y cruza toda la rica y poblada zona de colonias terminando en la ciudad de Tucuman.
Comprenden las tierras que se ofrecen en venta, en la Estacion Arrufo del ferro-carril mencionado y van hasta la Estacion Ceres de la cual distan 2 a 2 1/2 leguas estando el resto de ellas ubicadas sobre la Estacion Malbran extendiendose al Sud Oeste de la misma.
Todas estas tierras estan medidas, y mi diendose el resto por el Agrimensor Publico, Señor Eduardo Elguera, y seran entregadas amojonadas a todos y cada uno de los compradores una vez escrituradas.
Copias de una carta de dicho Agrimensor, lo pertinente a la fraccion que acaba de medir, que dice:—
"Respecto de la clase de tierra, se puede considerar de tener igual calidad de tierra vejetal de 50 centimetros termino medio de tierra negra, terrenos muy altos, el agua potable obteniendose de 6 a 12 metros. No hay montes espesos (exceptuando las tierras que estan al Norte sobre la Estacion Malbran donde los montes son muy abundantes y en partes impenetrables) sino isletas de arboles v. g. tiandubay, algarrobo, palo amarillo, algarrobo negro, etc. etc.
"El lote 85 es algo bajo terreno inferior.
"Los demas lotes son adecuados para la agricultura y se encuentran rodeados de colonias es mas pobladas y otras en formacion y cerca a las Estaciones Arrufo, Herrilla, Ceres, del gran ferro-carril de B. Aires a Tucuman.
"Las poblaciones que se advierten en el plano son pobladores que tienen animales de cria (vacuno, yegu rizo y ovino) en todas ellas hay jagueles para dar agua a las haciendas.
"La temperatura de esta region es la misma que reina en de donde dista unas 20 leguas."
Creemos que con estos datos nada tenemos que alegar sobre la bondad de estas tierras que solo necesitan los brazos de hombres para hacerlos producir y con sus frutos sacar en un par de años doble de lo que se ha pagado por ellas.
La Provincia de Santa Fe que hace apenas 15 años, puede decirse, hera casi desierta, hoy es un emporio cruzado en todas direcciones por lineas ferreas pobladas por innumerables colonias que robosan de poblacion rica y activa; llenas de molinos a vapor, elevadores de granos, fabricas e industrias sin fin.
Antes del fin de este siglo, la Provincia de Santa Fe enviara al mundo de sus granos de todas clases como lo hacen actualmente los Estados Unidos del Norte.
Creemos inutil insistir en mayores detalles sobre lo que son y seran estas tierras; ahi estan sus hechos que dicen mas de lo que podrisamos decir nosotros.
Llamaremos si la atencion de los compradores sobre las condiciones de la venta a saber:—
Sin base ni limitacion alguna por lo que den.
El pago se hara una cuarta parte al contado y el resto a 6, 9 y 12 meses de plazo con pagare hipotecario.
5 o/o al firmar el boleto a cuenta del precio y en caso de no escriturar dentro de los 30 dias de la venta perdera el comprador dicho 5 o/o y quedara resuelto el contrato a eleccion de los vendedores quienes podran exijir la escrituracion si asi les conviene.
Planos y pormenores se obtendran en nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482.
